

What is SPEECH THERAPY

Speech Therapy (SLP) may be provided as in-home care by Licensed Speech-Language Pathologist and Licensed Speech-Language Pathologist Assistants.

Disfluency Disorder

Stuttering or resonance.

Receptive /Expressive Language Disorders

Sharing thoughts, ideas, and feelings. Syntax, content and/or use of language in functional and socially appropriate ways.

Social Communication Disorders

trouble with the social use of verbal and nonverbal communication.

Cognitive-Communication Disorders

organizing thoughts, paying attention, remembering, planning, and/or problem-solving

Swallowing disorders (dysphagia)

feeding and swallowing difficulties, which may follow an illness, surgery, stroke, or injury or be congenital.

